HOURS-OF-SERVICE RULES

Loggers

Work-shift

Day

- a 24-hour period that begins at the hour designated by the carrier
- · maximum 13 hours driving
- no driving after 15 hours on-duty

Cumulative Hours

Off-Duty

- no driving after 65 driving hours in 7 days
- no driving after 80 on-duty hours in 7 days

24 consecutive hours off at least driver must take at least once every 7 days

Other

- · must use a log book
- no reset provision

elapsed time

· no ability to defer off-duty time

• total elapsed time between 2 off-duty periods of at least 9 consecutive no driving after 15 hours of total maximum 13 hours of driving no driving after 15 hours on-duty

Provincial Regulations only -

Further information can be located at www.cvse.ca/national_safety_code.htm

Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure Commercial Vehicle Safety and Enforcement Branch

HOURS-OF-SERVICE RULES

Oil and Gas Industry – Intra-provincial Carrier or Operating Under a Federal Hours of Service Permit

Cycles

 exempt from Cycle 1 and Cycle 2 if intra-provincial or operating under a Federal Hours of Service Permit and commercial vehicle meets the requirements as specified in the regulations

Day/Work-shift

no exemptions from day/work-shift rules

Other

- cycle hours begin to accumulate once driver returns to regular driving
- · no ability to defer off-duty

Off-Duty

- 3 periods of 24 hours off that may be taken consecutively or separated by onduty time
- driver must take at least 72 consecutive hours off after ending driving under the provisions of the permit and returning to regular driving
- standby and waiting time will be considered off-duty time, if:
 - driver performs no work during the time
 - the time is fully and accurately recorded in the daily log as off-duty time and denoted as waiting or standby time in the "remarks" section
- time is not included in the mandatory 8 consecutive hours of off-duty time between work-shifts

- -This is for guidance only – any conflict between this document and the MVA Regulations or Federal Commercial Vehicle Hours of Service Regulations – the latter shall apply - -

Further information can be located at www.cvse.ca/national_safety_code.htm

Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure Commercial Vehicle Safety and Enforcement Branch

CVSE2013

